In addition to filming and recording a number of artists in a combination of genres, Hen House has produced a series of compilation CDs through its Stone Mountain Entertainment label that are distributed in various online record stores, traditional record stores, specialty shops and at the Hen House Studios website.

The current CD release, Hen House Studios Anthology 4, 2004, taps into California's diverse and extremely talented music community and takes you on a musical journey through reggae, rock, emo punk, folk and spoken word.

The records highlights include:

1) Fan Fiction - "Naked" 5:04

A young, emo rock band from Los Angeles with star power.

2) Boom Shaka - "International Diplomat" 5:17
These reggae legends have been touring the world and releasing records for 20 years.

3) Sonja Marie - "I Am Life" 2:30

A soulful poet that has sold millions of records.

4) Asian Fetish Brigade - "Lotus Blossom" 2:49

A funk/rock band fueled by sex and rebellion. "It's pop not porn."

5) Ethan Livermore - "The Dead" 2:39

Young talent, originally from Seattle, brings on a contemporary funk/rock sound.

6) Badfish - "Just Hope" 4:04

This Santa Ana band leads the exploding Orange County reggae scene. This is reggae from behind the "orange curtain".

7) Drunk Acrobat - "Creature Feature" 3:24

A rock band, originally from Boston, adds a high level of creativity to their well crafted music.

8) Pete Holland - "Friends Like These" 3:14

A singer songwriter, folk musician who is making it happen in the Los Angeles club/coffee house scene.

9) Big Cat - "What Do You See" 4:52

One of the most important and hard working reggae bands from Huntington Beach, CA.

10) Cattywompus - "Beautiful" 3:49

A pure L.A. high energy, party/rock band.

11) HB Surround Sound - "Time Will Tell" 1:24

Pop punk from where it flourishes - Huntington Beach, California.

12) Nikki Hong - "Stay A While" 2:49

Young, sexy, sultry, pop singer originally from Korea.

13) Michael C Ford & Ray Manzarak -

"Xtreme Unction" 2:59

The Doors keyboardist joins a Grammy and Pulitzer Prize nominated poet.

14) Beyond Rhythm - "Backfire" 3:42

The home of this roots reggae band, Riverside, is far from the ocean and the most polluted town in Southern California. Go figure!
